Back Then...
Thanks for the Memories

Burlian Walker writes: One morning in June 1987, Dr. Billy B. Thames' secretary, Georgia Myers, called me and told me to come down to Thames' office. I walked in and there sat Earvin 'Magic' Johnson, fresh from being named Most Valuable Player in the NBA finals for the World Champion Los Angeles Lakers. With him were his proud grandfather, Jack Johnson, who was a Co-Lin employee for approximately 40 years; his father, Earvin Johnson; and a younger brother.

Charlotte Sullivan Hill remembers another moment in time: In 1961, one had to have permission from parents to leave campus. Also, freshmen girls were allowed two dates per month, if written permission from parents were on file.

Martha Green Matthews remembers when: My years spent at Co-Lin from 1949-1953 were some of the happiest years of my life. I entered as a junior in high school, lived on campus and participated in both high school and junior college band and glee club the first two years. Almost every weekend there was a trip or planned activity in these two groups or some other campus activity I could participate in. Therefore, I seldom went home on the weekends.

Billy Gordon writes: Growing up in a small town like Wesson and knowing everyone was such a joy, and I still remember those people today. They were so involved in the life of Co-Lin.

Trillium's 2004 Dedication

Darryl Jordan

This year's Trillium is dedicated to a man for whom the word "dedication" is quite fitting: Darryl Jordan. Darryl was hired to work for Co-lin in July of 1975, and since that summer has done everything from putting out snake bait to overseeing new construction projects on campus. Darryl Jordan, the first recipient of the High Performance Award, is a jack of all trades: electrician, plumber, carpenter, painter, and even gardener. Most importantly, though, he is a nice guy; he approaches every task with a smile and never complains--even when he answers a call at two in the morning about a clogged toilet. Many on campus would also call Darryl the King of Practical Jokes. One of his many jokes involved directing Lea Ann Knight, who was at the physical plant to pick up a car from the motor pool, to take Dr. Garner's car. Dr. Garner ended the joke by running out to stop her. The lesson: Never leave the keys in a car at the Physical Plant! The word "idle" could never be used to describe Darryl. If he is not working on one of the many projects at Co-Lin, he will find something to do--including cooking for maintenance functions.Someone once said that dedications were given to people who were about to retire, but I somehow doubt that that is a word that will ever accurately describe Darryl either.

Dr. Howell Garner

President of the College

Dr. Howell C. Garner became president of Copiah Lincoln Community College on July 1, 1997. Having been affiliated with Co-Lin for 23 years before becoming president, he was dean of the college since 1985 and before that was dean of the Natchez campus and assistant dean.

He has been a high school social studies teacher, a business law/political science instructor on the community college level, and adjunct instructor at the University of Southern Mississippi and Mississippi State University.

Dr. Garner earned a bachelor's degree from Mississippi State University, 40 hours at the University of Mississippi School of Law, a master's degree and his doctorate, both from the University of Southern Mississippi.

He has served on numerous boards and committees and as president of the Mississippi Deans Association. He is listed in several professional biographies. Dr. Garner has been active in the Lion's Club on a local, district, state, and international level.

He has served in various positions, including Club President, Zone Chairman, District Governor, State Membership Chairman, State Leadership Chairman, and President of the Mississippi Lions Sight Foundation. He has received four international President's Awards.

Dr. Garner has served in various leadership positions in the Wesson Chamber of Commerce and the Copiah County Economic Development District since 1991.

He and Mrs. Garner are active members of Brookhaven First Baptist Church and they are the parents of two sons, Brad and Justin.

Dean of the College

Dr. Paul D. Johnson became district dean of the college on July 1, 1997. As Dean of the College, acting under and in conjunction with the President, Dr. Johnson has the responsibility of coordinating all phases of the college program.

Prior to this, he served Copiah-Lincoln Community College as Dean of the Natchez Campus, Division Chair for the Health and Physical Fitness Division, and Men's Head Basketball Coach where he led the wolves to the MACJC State Championship in 1989.

Dr. Johnson began his coaching/ teaching at South Natchez in 1978. Additionally, he has worked at the University of Texas-Austin, East Tennessee State University, and Prentiss High School.

An associate degree graduate of Jones County Junior College, Dr. Johnson received his bachelor's degree from Belhaven College and a master's degree in curriculum and instruction from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1986. He received his doctorate in philosophy in educational leadership from the University of Mississippi. Dr. Johnson is a member of many professional organizations such as the Copiah-Lincoln Educators Association, Mississippi Academic Dean's Association, Wesson Lion's Club, Wesson Chamber of Commerce, and Brookhaven-Lincoln County Chamber of Commerce.

He and his wife, the former Mary Miller, are parents of two daughters, Maggie, a sophomore at Co-Lin, and Anna, a senior at Wesson Attendance Center. They are members of First Baptist Church in Brookhaven.

Copiah-Lincoln Board of Trustees

Members of the Board are Trustees are: Chairman: Eugene Bates, Church Hill; Vice Chairman: Roy Winkworth, Natchez; Secretary: Tommy Sasser, Brookhaven; Steve Ammann, Mendenhall; Calvin Britt, Wesson; John Bull, Monticello; Jack Burt, Crystal Springs; Don Cagle, Wesson; Jack Case, Brookhaven; Mary Cleveland, Hazlehurst; Rickey Clopton, Wesson; John Dickey, Fayette; Willie Harrison; Brookhaven; Thomas Jolly, Jr., Monticello; Melton King, Natchez; Randall Lofton, Brookhaven; Jack McAlpin, Magee; Penny McAlpin, Magee; Perry Miller, Brookhaven; Dr. Anthony L. Homecoming was a Blowout!

Homecoming 2003 was yet another milestone in the 75th anniversary here at Co-Lin. As always, the day was filled with enjoyment and entertainment for people of all ages. This year's special guest was Co-Lin alumni, Tricia Walker. The day began with the usual regime of class reunions early that morning. Alumni were greeted by the friendly smiles of the Co-Lin faculty, staff, and Trailblazers. The alumni obvisously enjoyed seeing the many sights and changes that have occurred over the years.

Mid-day activities inluded the Tailgate Party featuring the music of Nashville singer/songwriter Tricia Walker. The crowd response to her was very positive. The tailgate party proved to be successful and effective warm up to the day's major event.

As afternoon fell on the overcast Mississippi day, the major festivities got under way with the presentation of the Homecoming Court. Grecian Barnett and her court did a beautiful job representing the student body this year.

Following the court, football action got under way. The Wolfpack took to the field to defend themselves against Hinds. Although in the end the Wolves were defeated, the game proved to be a very entertaining to Wolfpack fans.

During halftime the Co-Lin Blue Wave Show Band took control of the field and once again blew the audiences away with their superior skills and dynamics. The crowd response was overwhelming.

All in all, the day went spectacular with few, if any, mishaps. Homecoming 2003 will go down in Co-Lin history as a milestone for many years to come.

From Dusk til Dawn

Every morning you can see a streaming line of football players getting their breakfast for the day, this may even be after they have already had their early morning practice, with much more to come. They sign in to insure there bodies are kept up with all the nutrients they need. Noontime comes lunch and a table full of rowdy players making the cafeteria atmosphere a bit livelier. By dinner their afternoon practice has worn them down and the conversation at the table will be more geared for the night and the upcoming game. When needed, the coaches will assign mandatory study hall that helps keep the players studies and grades under control. If anything these men are here to learn and keep up the tradition of the Wolfpack.

On game day players are wild and ready to win. Their spirits are high and the ambition to win is running full force. From the first day of practice to the first kick off to the final prayer of the last game of the season these players are one team and proudly representing the seventy-fifth year of football tradition at Copiah Lincoln Community College.

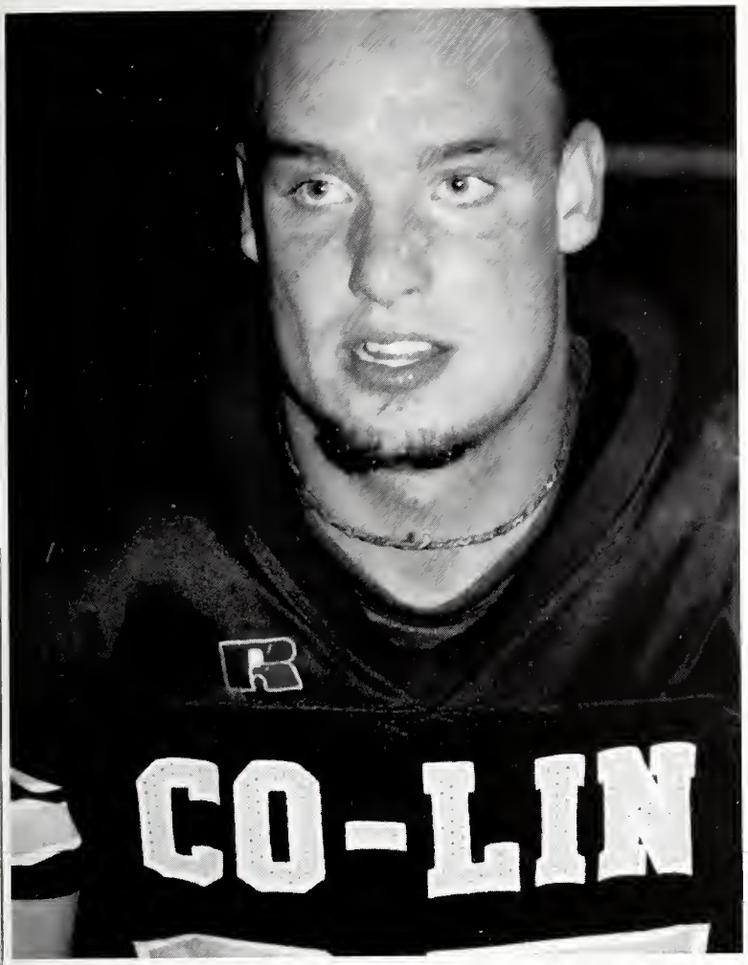
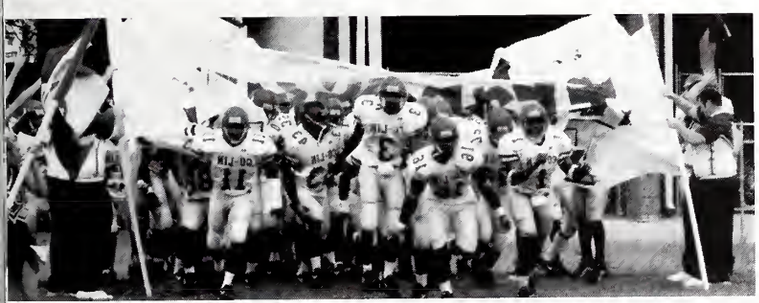
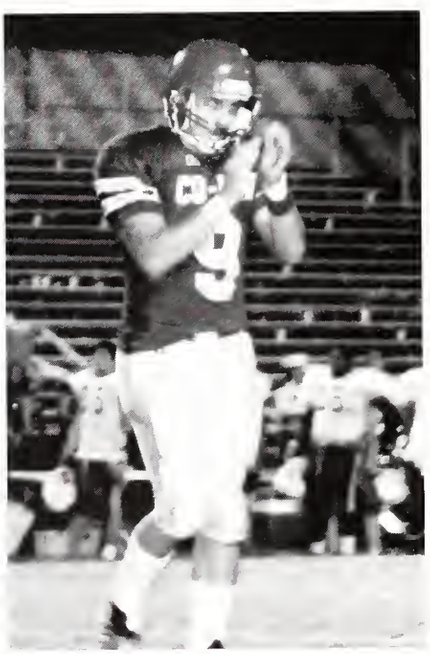
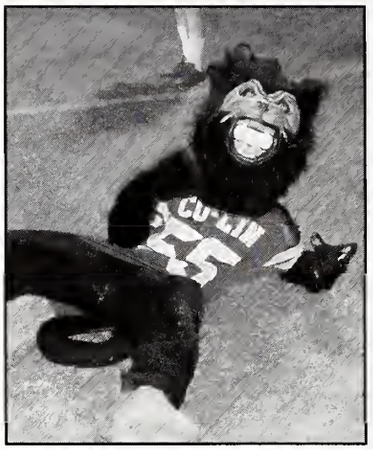
Wolfpack







From Start to Finish



Regardless of the situation there will always be some cheering at a sporting event. The number one supporters of any Co-Lin team are the cheerleaders. There main objective is to rally the forces against the opponents. There force being there voice. By using any such cheering equipment they are heard through out the game. Never giving up or failing to keep the crowd entertained, the cheerleaders can be considered hard workers and full of spirit. This year especially was one of celebration. Cheering harder and longer became an objective when many alumni were around to see the great spirit the cheerleaders have maintained to uphold yet another Co-Lin tradition.

"We've got a good set of sophomores returning, and a pretty solid class of freshmen coming in," said Keith Case, who enters his 12th season as field general of the Wolfpack. "As long as we take it one game at a time and work hard at improving, we should be okay." Last year Co-Lin went 21-28 on the diamond; this year they hope to improve that first number. New faces and old ones will help give the Wolves a potent mixture at every position. One new face this year is Assistant Coach Bryan Nobile, who comes to us from Delta State University where he served as a graduate assistant coach.

Lady Wolves

Coming off an improved 22-10 season that included a state tournament appearance, the Co-Lin Lady Wolves softball team will have a hard act to follow to say the least. Losing seven starters, this year's team will depend on six returning sophomores and an excellent group of recruits.

"We're going to be young," said Coach Allen Kent. "Our freshmen will have to step up, for us to be close to what we did last season."

Returning sophomores include pitcher Katie Rouch and Ashley Davis. Other sophomores are Elise Dixon of Liberty, Ginny Dunaway of Brookhaven, Holli Bass of West Lincoln, and Jennifer Doty of Florence.

Eleven year veteran Johnny Williams is the Lady Wolves assistant coach.

Both coaches expect this year to be a rebuilding year for their softball Lady Wolves on the diamond.

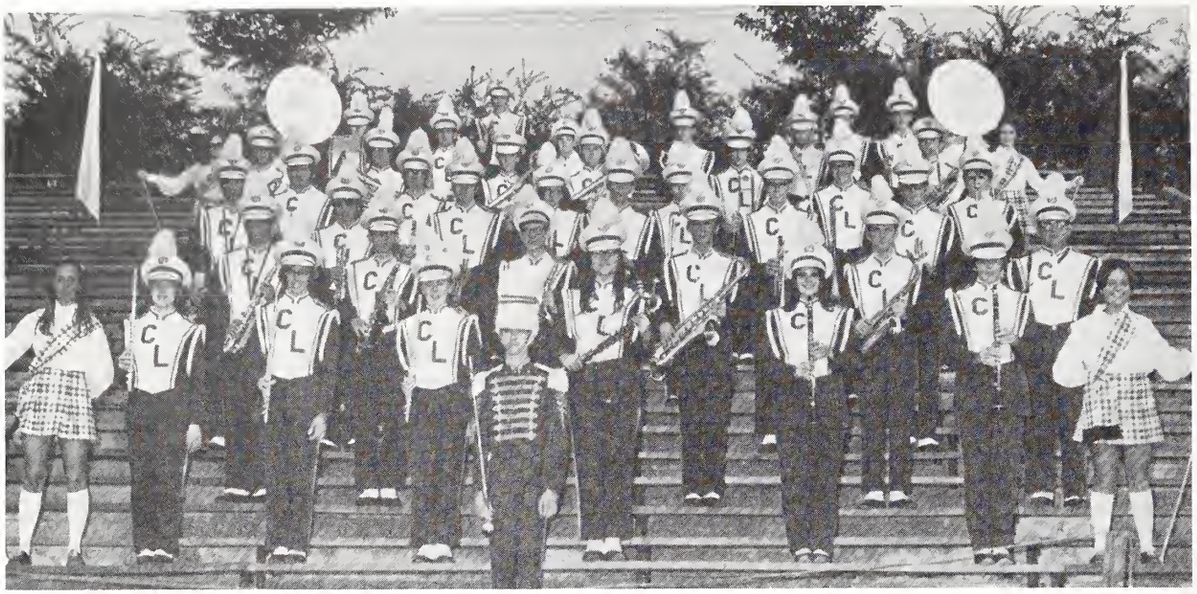
Co-Lin's Band, Colettes Draw National Recognition



Since its formation in 1930, the Co-Lin Show Band has achieved statewide and national recognition as an outstanding and unique show band. In addition to the half-time shows at Co-Lin football games and various parades thoughout Mississippi, the band has performed in many other states.

The entire band traveled to New Orleans for numerous Mardi Gras parades, Miami and Washington, D.C. for the National American Legion Conventions, and New York City for Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town" Variety Show and Macy's Thanksgiving Parade.

According to the late Ralph Franklin, Co-Lin's bandsmen were the first in Mississippi to use dance steps. They became such a noted attraction that state newspapers called them the "State's No. 1 Jitterbug Band" (1940).

HEAD COLETTE
SCHERRY SWEENEY

The Colettes not only are the first in the state but are the third oldest such group in the nation having been organized as an unit in 1930. The Colettes continue to be an attraction of the Co-Lin band up to the present time and the position of Head Colette is still honored and highly competitive one.

"They existed before the famed Dixie Darlings of the Univeristy of Southern Mississippi," said the late Ralph W. Franklin.

Sophomore Cole Warren, from New Hebron, sang to the musical hits such as "My Favorite Things" and "Rainy Day."

Sophomore Todd Thompson, from Meadville, has led the Blue Wave Show for the last two years.

Managers for the band are David Reid, Lacey Jackson, and Ceddrick Phillip.

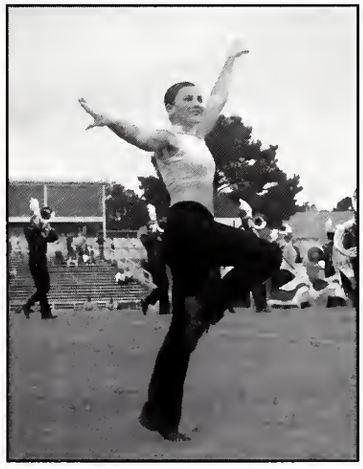
2003-2004 Blue Wave Show Band



The year's Blue Wave Show Band once again entertained the audiences of Hook Stone Stadium with a powerful highly energentic show full of color and excitement. The band rocked the halftime show with some old familiar tunes, including My Favorite Things, Respect, Here's That Rainy Day. Co-Lin's awesome percussion section performed a solo written by Assistant Band Director Chris Warren, from the rock hit Frankenstein.

Leading this year's band are Shaw Furlow, Director of Bands, Chris Warren and Stanley Stewart, both Assistant Director of Bands, and Shelly Smith Huskey, Colette/Flag Corp Director.

Eta Omega taking over Co-Lin

Phi Theta Kappa the national junior college honorary scholastic fraternity, was organized in 1918 to promote scholarships, to develop character and to cultivate friendship among students in junior colleges over the United States. The Copiah-Lincoln Community College was founded in 1951 with Miss Lula Stevens at first faculty advisor. The chapter was chartered as Eta Omega.

In 1955 Miss Willie Mae Hamill became advisor to the group. Under Miss Hamill's leadership the organization flourished. Meetings were held twice a month and the chapter was represented at both state and national conventions. In 1971 Durr Walker, Jr., was appointed associate advisor to the group and became head advisor upon Miss Hamill's death in 1973.

Moving on to the present, the 2003-2004 Eta Omega chapter has already claimed many awards and made Co-Lin the place to be for Phi Theta Kappa.

Drama Club Presents Rocky Horror Picture Show

If a musical sci-fi satire about an alien transvestite named Frank-n-Furter, who is building the perfect man while playing sexual games with his virginal visitors, sounds like an intriguing premise for a movie, then the Drama Club put on the perfect production for you.

Upon its release in 1975, the film was an astounding flop, but a few devotees persudaded New York theater to show it at midnight, and thus was born one of the ultimate cult films of all time. The songs are addictive, the raunchiness amusing, and the plot line utterly ridiculous--in other words, this was simplu tremendous good fun. The movie cast consisted of Susan Sarandon, Barry Bostwick, and Tim Curry.

The Drama Club did it complete justice when they performed the amusing tell during Halloween.

Copiah-Lincoln Choral Music Department

Throughout the 75 year history of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, various performing groups have provided cultural enrichment and popular entertainment for both the Co-Lin student body and the Co-Lin community. More than this, these performing groups in the musical and dramatic arts have been a medium for creative and artistic development in the lives of thousands of talented students.

The college musical tradition evolved from that of the Co-Lin High School whose choral concerts, operettas, musicals, and solo recitals by voice, piano, and violin students were annual highlights on the campus. The director of the first college choir in 1928-1929 was Mrs. Maggie Flowers Ewing who previously had taught in the high school. Mrs. Ewing also sponsored a male quartet and a female trio that first year. Since that time trios, quartets, sextets, quintets, and other small ensembles have become traditional performing groups at Co-Lin with the present counterpart to these early singing groups being the Sojourners and the Ambassadors.

The outstanding achievement of these early groups is verified not only by those who remember them but also by the trophies that were won at the State Junior College Choir Festivals and which are now on display in the show cases in the Ewing Fine Arts Building. Also on display there are programs, pictures and other interesting memorabilia citing special music activities through the years.

Mrs. Ewing, for whom the Fine Arts Building is named, remained a strong influence in Co-Lin's Music Department until her retirement in 1956, the year another long time and present faculty member, Miss Julia Guess, joined the college. Miss Guess, who headed the Music Department for many years, was director of various choral groups; and in 1970, she organized and directed a community choir which for several years presented a major oratorio at Christmas time.

Stephen Bush, Katie Diamond, and Daniel Johnson take in the evening's events from the head table. 6. Jamison Roane showed off his sword fighting skills to the audience. 7. Lindsey Johnson served her gracious guest with a smile. 8. Brian Mitchell mastered his serving skills by the end of the night. 9. Beth Ballard and Cole Warren ate, drank, and were merry the entire night long.

Music Department visits the Renaissance

Knights in shining armor, damsels in distress, brave huntsmen, mirth-making jesters, Lords and Ladies in Renaissance regalia, an Olde English castle... at Copiah-Lincoln?

On February 12 and 13th, the Co-Lin Music Department presented its bi-annual Madrigal Feaste, a festive dinner featuring a sumptuous feast, a cappella singing, Renaissance costumes, lively entertainment, and Olde English merriment.

The Co-Lin Concert Choir, the Ambassadors Select Vocal Ensemble, and the Sojourners Show Choir participated in this celebration of life, love, and jolly good frivolity and music making.

The singing of madrigals around a table was a popular form of entertainment in the 16th and 17th century in England.

And Now... Taking the present and moving on with the future

Timeline of Buildings:

1994: The James H. Stribiling Associate Degree Nursing Building was completed in the summer of 1994 for the first class in the fall. Constructed and equipped at a cost of $1.3 million, the 20,000 square foot facility is used for the college's A.D.N. program and to teach other academic classes. The building contains a nursing skills lab, science classrooms, a computer laboratory, general lecture rooms, an elevated classroom, a student lounge, and faculty offices.

1998: The Fred and Jewett Taylor Chapel was built in 1998. It is located next to the Ewing Administration Building. It is complete with an organ, piano, carillons, bride's room and restroom. It seats 100-115 people and serves as a site for many functions on campus such as devotionals, special ceremonies, and weddings. The Taylor Chapel was a project of the Copiah-Lincoln Foundation and the Alumni Association.

2000: The Billy B. Thames Conference Center was dedicated to Dr. Thames on February 4, 2000. The College's Division of Community Services Offices are housed at the center, which has over 19,000 square feet of office and meeting space. The primary function of the center will be hosting training conferences, meetings, seminars, and workshops. The Center includes a large banquet hall, a full service kitchen, and two training rooms. The Wesson Room and The Natchez Room, which have computers and technology for video conferencing and other meeting needs. The Thames Center, which is a full state-of-the-art technology facilities and focused on community service, was an early vision of Dr. Thames.

2002: Lincoln and Lawrence Hall, the two newest men's honors dormitories were built in 2002. They are located on the west side of the Frank Pitt's Field House and opened in January 2003. Both dorms have 16 suites with two rooms each, equipped with cable television accessibility, phone jacks, and Internet access.

2004: Coming in the August of 2004 - Copiah - Lincoln Community College Instructional Technology Building. The 28,400 square foot building, when completed, will house seven class rooms, six computer labs, a training lab for faculty, a conference room, a faculty resource room, and a faculty lounge.

Trillium

75 Years in the Making

Colophon

The 75th Volume of the Copiah-Lincoln Community College Trillium was published by the college's yearbook staff and lithographed by Walsworth publishing company of Marceline, MO.

The Trillium's theme, "Back Then...And Now" was a brain child of staff members Elizabeth Chapman and Sara Cochran. This theme was selected to showcase the past 75 years at Co-Lin. The cover design is more traditional so to reminsce on years of the Co-Lin yearbook.

The press run consisted of 1500 copies of the Trillium's 160 pages. Times New Roman and Helevitica were the fonts used for the majority. Body caption was in 10 or 12 point type, captions ranged from 4 to 12 point type. The publishing program used was Adobe PageMaker version 6.5.

Student body pictures were taken by Johnny Smith, and all other photos were taken by Natalie Davis, Billy Freeman, and Sara Cochran. The staff was advised by Ashley Bonds and Natalie Davis with some support from Casey Hardison. The Trillium was produced by Elizabeth Chapman, Sophomore Editor; Sara Cochran, Freshman Editor; and Mandy Elkins.

Our Walsworth representative is Ken Tally of Tally Student Services in Forest.

32 Years of
Learning, Commitment, and Community

The Natchez Campus

As we began our 32nd year at the Natchez campus, we were filled with much excitement. For the first time in the history of our school, enrollment exceeded the 1,000 mark. Ronnie Nettles, dean of the campus, attributed this growth to "the high quality instruction program at our campus; the [low] cost of attending Co-Lin; the closing of several local industries; and the dual enrollment program offered to local high school students." When asked why she was attending Co-Lin, Tamika Scott answered, "Co-Lin has a lot to offer. [It] is a good starting point. I am securing a great education here."

We at the Natchez Campus were not only excited about our increased enrollment but also because we got the opportunity to join in the celebration of Co-Lin/Wesson's 75th birthday. As our campus began its 32nd year and Wesson, its 75th, both campuses remain committed to learning and community.

Ronald E. Nettles
Dean of the Natchez Campus

Ronald E. Nettles became dean of the Natchez Campus in July 1997. For the three years prior to becoming dean, he served as the Director of Community and Economic Development for Co-Lin, where he was responsible for coordinating the development of customized training and educational programs for business and industry. Nettles, a Natchez native, graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science in 1983, and a Master of Education degree in Counseling and Personnel Services in 1986. He received a Ph.D. from the University of Mississippi in Educational Leadership in 1994. Prior to his employment at Co-Lin, Nettles was the Director of Career Planning and Placement at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Nettles is an active member of the Board of Directors for the Natchez Rotary Club and Adams county chapter of the American Red Cross. He is actively involved on the Education Committee of the Natchez-Adams Chamber of Commerce and previously served as a member of the Board of Directors. Nettles is also a member of the Academic Deans Association in Mississippi and the National Council of Instructional Administrators.

Nettles' goal for the Natchez campus is for it to continue to provide a quality education in a caring environment. He remarked, "Here at the Natchez campus, the faculty and staff are dedicated and caring. We take seriously our responsibility to provide each and every student with the best possible education we can ... [and,] we are pleased that individuals seeking higher education and specialized training continue to choose our institution and take advantage of what [we] have to offer."

The Nettles family includes Rosie and Jordan (sitting) and Brandon and Ronnie (standing).

Activities on and off campus keep Dean Nettles extremely busy.

Gwendolyn S. McCalip Receives The Natchez Trillium Dedication

Gwen McCalip graduated from Mississippi State with a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education and from Mississippi College with a Master of Education degree in Education Guidance and Counseling. Additional studies include Northeast Louisiana University. She has been a dedicated employee of Co-Lin since 1992, beginning as a part-time psychology instructor and then advancing to Academic Counselor. Currently, she serves as the Admissions and Records Director. Prior to her employment at Co-Lin, she worked for the Concordia Parish and Cathedral School Systems.

McCalip is the secretary/treasurer for the Mississippi Association for College Registrars and Admissions Officers. She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, the Southern Association for College Registrars and Admissions Officers, the Mississippi Association for Community and Junior Colleges Registrars and Admissions Officers, the Mississippi Counseling Association for Community and Junior Colleges, and the Co-Lin Community College (CLCC) Foundation Board of Directors.

McCalip is very active on and off campus. She was instrumental in creating the F. Kenneth McCalip Memorial Scholarship, named in the memory of her husband. She also played a significant role in the Co-Lin/Natchez Golf Classic, which raises money each year for scholarships for Natchez Campus students. Additionally, she serves on the Board of Directors for the Carriage House, is a Natchez Junior Auxiliary Sustaining Member, and a member of the Pilgrimage Garden Club, the Krewe of Phoenix, and the Kappa Delta Alumni Association. Furthermore, she is a member of St. Mary Basilica church, where she is serving as lector.

Honors include the High Performance Award, the Mississippi Counseling Association State Recognition Award, and induction into the Co-Lin Foundation Hall of Fame.

McCalip is the mother of Conn Kenneth and Chase McNeil.

Despite her hectic schedule, McCalip always takes time to smile and ask how's your day going?

MR. AND MISS CO-LIN NATCHEZ CAMPUS

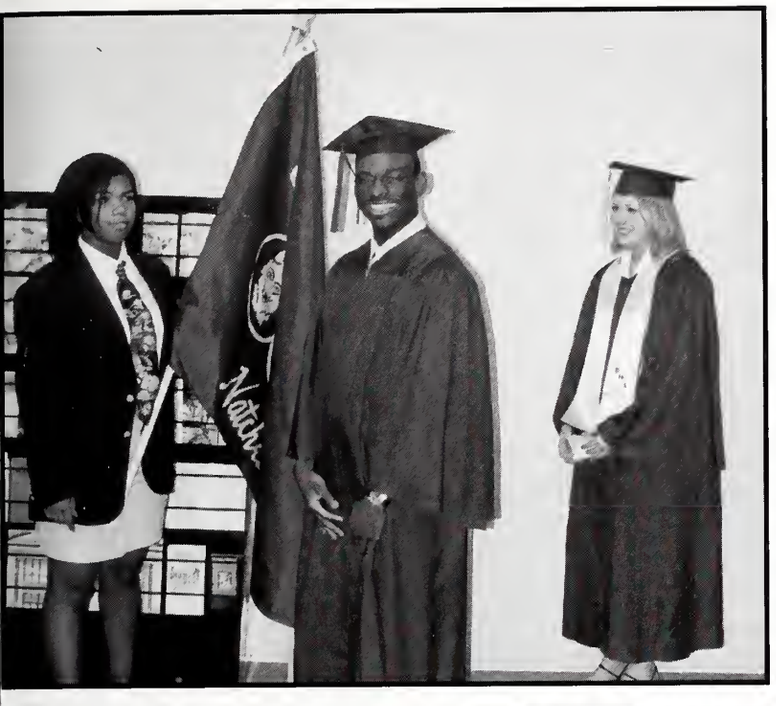
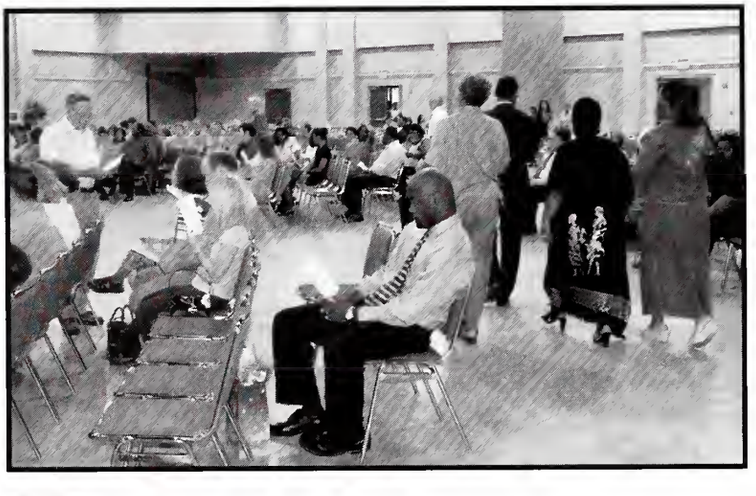
A NIGHT OF AWARDS

Awards Night was a night of scholarships and special recognition for students and staff. Highlighting the event was the induction of three students—Matthew Willis, Nila Green, and James Adams—into the Co-Lin Hall of Fame and the dedication of the yearbook to Spanish and speech instructor Linda Flynn.

Dr. Howell Garner, president of the college, described the event as "one of those nights that we get to reward those people who have worked hard all year as students and employees."

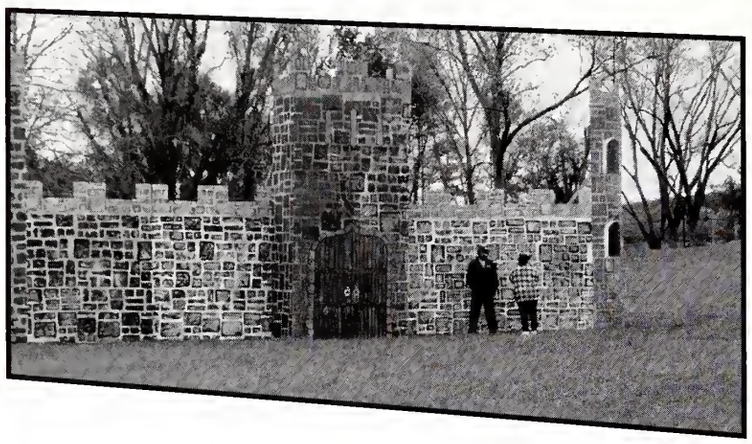
THE LARGEST CLASS EVER

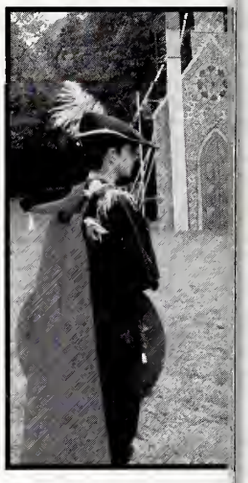




On May 16, 2003, Co-Lin/Natchez said good-bye to its largest graduating class—176 students. Due to the large class size, commencement was held in the Natchez Convention Center. Dr. Nettles remarked, "We are proud of the growth in our graduating class, it is a reflection on the success we have had in attracting and retaining students."

STEPPING BACK IN TIME



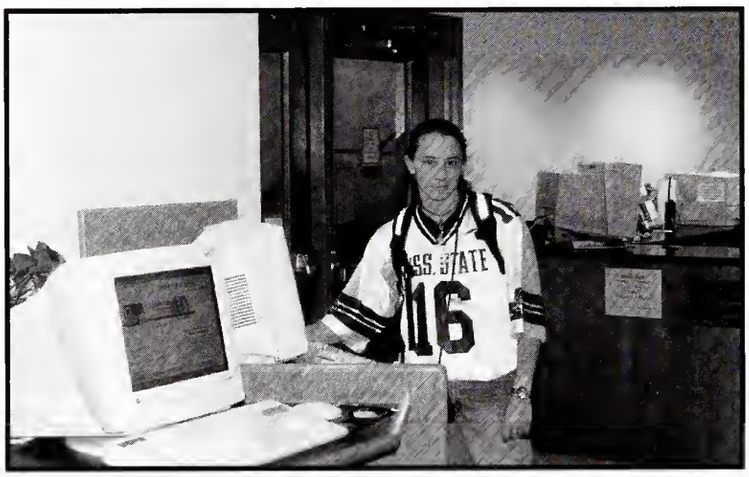


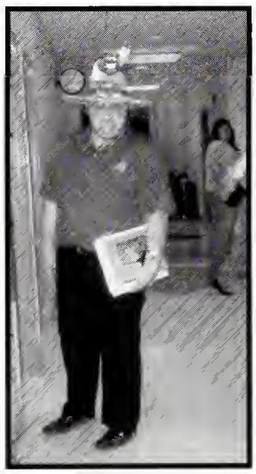
Co-Lin Natchez celebrated its fourth annual Renaissance Faire on Wednesday, April 9, 2003. Students came from Cathedral, Adams County Christian School, Alcorn State University School of Nursing, and Co-Lin Wesson to participate in games of sack-a-serf, frog pounding and archery. They also feasted on turkey legs, pretzels, funnel cakes, and drinks. The cold weather did not appear to dampen the spirit or appetite of those in attendance.

THE RENAISSANCE FAIRE

Students from as far away as Wesson braved the cold weather to enter a magical world where queens, princesses, fair ladies, and wandering wizards were brought to life for a day of fun and entertainment. Many had their palms read and followed Merlin, begging him to grant their wishes. Others stood in awe as a wandering wizard made eggs magically disappear before their very eyes. Despite the cold weather, everyone appeared to have enjoyed the day.

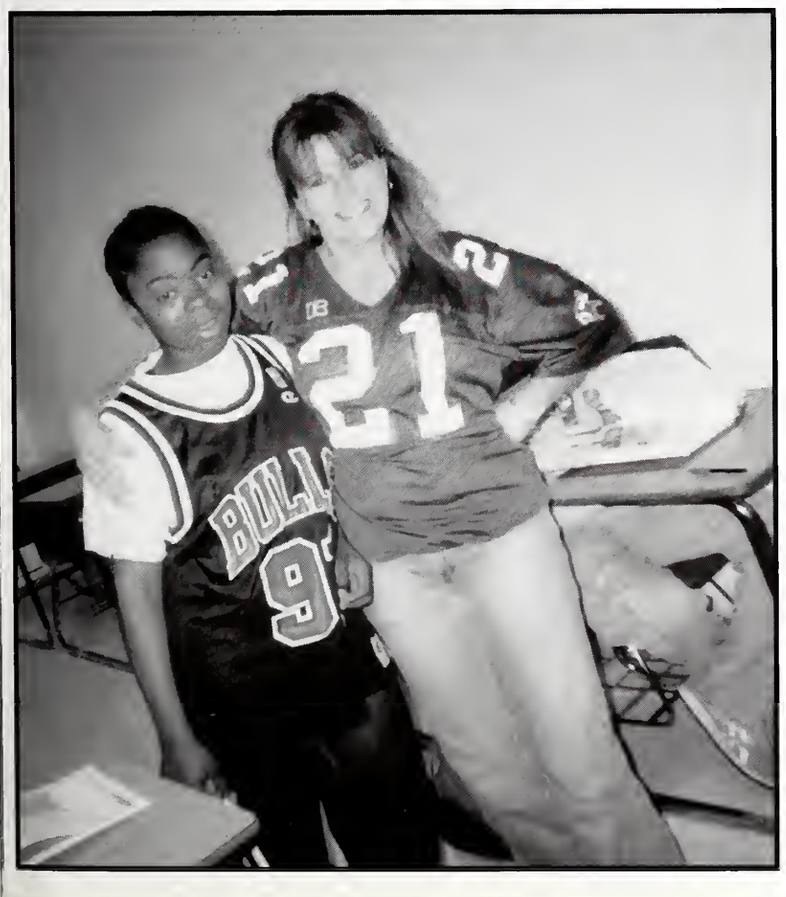
CATCH THE SPIRIT





The week of October 6-10 was a week of fun, spirit, laughter, and celebration. In anticipation of Homecoming Day, October 11, SGA sponsored Spirit Week at the Natchez Campus. SGA president Sitaniel Johnson said that the activities planned for the week were a "terrific way for the campus to come together and enjoy the great atmosphere here."

HOMECOMING WEEK



Students, along with faculty and staff, got into the spirit of Homecoming by wearing their favorite or unusual hats on Monday; donning their favorite team jersey on Tuesday; professionally dressing up on Wednesday; wearing clothes from the 1970s on Thursday; and putting on their Co-Lin's colors on Friday. Everyone on campus seemed to have caught the spirit of Homecoming Week.
